

County of Caroline
Department of Fire-Rescue & Emergency Management

Employment Opportunities

Fire and Rescue Training Officer (Full Time)

Internal Advertisement

Caroline County Department of Fire and Rescue currently has a full time opening for the position of Fire and Rescue Training Officer.

This position will be responsible for the countywide coordination of training for both career and volunteer fire and rescue personnel.

Qualifications:

Education equivalent to a two-year (Associate) degree from an accredited college/university with major course work in management, EMS, fire sciences, communications, business, education, public administration, human resources or related field or any equivalent combination of experience and training which provides the requested knowledge, skills and abilities. Experience in the coordination and/or delivery of fire and/or EMS education programs.

Possession at all times of a valid, Virginia driver's license with an acceptable driving record. Currently hold and maintain certification or equivalent in the following:

- EVOG Class III (or ability to obtain within the first year)
- Health Care Provider CPR or equivalent
- Virginia Emergency Medical Technician – Basic
- Virginia Department of Fire Programs Firefighter II
- Virginia Department of Fire Programs Hazardous Materials Operations
- Virginia EMT-Instructor (or ability to obtain within the first year)
- CPR Instructor (or ability to obtain within the first year)
- Virginia Department of Fire Programs Fire Instructor I (or ability to obtain within the first 18 months)

Salary Range:

Grade 18

$36,145 - $45,543 - $54,940

A complete job description may be obtained from the Department of Fire and Rescue

To Apply – Submit a letter of interest and a detailed resume or CV to Deputy Director Garnett
by Friday, April 4, 2008.