Ladysmith Village to Host Summer Concert Series

Concert series featuring local artists to debut on May 17

Ladysmith VA. (May 14, 2008) – Newland Communities is hosting the First Annual Summer Concert Series at Ladysmith Village. Beginning May 17, the summer concerts will bring families together for a night of fun and relaxation. The Summer Concert Series will feature local artists and entertainment, and all ticket proceeds will benefit area charities and organizations.

The first concert will take place on May 17th from 7:00PM to 9:00PM with The Difficult Run Jazz Band performing at the outdoor amphitheater at Ladysmith Village. The proceeds of the first concert will benefit Caroline's Promise. Caroline's Promise is a non-profit organization which serves the youth of Caroline County, Virginia. The organization thrives due to the contributions of local government, businesses and citizens who are dedicated to the young people of the area. Admission is free for Ladysmith Village residents and all children 12 and under. Non-residents may purchase tickets for $10 per person, with all ticket sales and donations going to charity.

"Newland is pleased to be apart of the Ladysmith Village Summer Concert Series," said Brett Barr, project manager of Ladysmith Village. "Everyone will be able to enjoy the local artists while also supporting local organizations."

This year's full line up includes:

- May 17 - The Difficult Run Jazz Band
- June 28 - Back-N-Time Oldies Rock Band
- July 19 - Milford Station Blue Grass Band
- August 16 - Back to the Future - 80's Rock Band

Featuring the music of four local bands, the Ladysmith Village Summer Concert Series will highlight entertaining acts that are family friendly. For more information regarding the concert series, please call 804-448-4529 or log onto www.lifeinladysmith.com.
